The jury trying Charles Cohen for shooting and wounding Joseph W. Porter, in Lexington, last November was discharged at the close of the morning sessions of court Tuesday afternoon after having deliberated on the case for twenty-five hours without reaching a verdict. Cohen was released on $5,000 bond for his appearance at the opening of the next term of court.

One of the most noteworthy features in connection with Tanlac is the large number of men and women who have reported an astonishingly rapid increase in weight as a result of its use. (adv)

THE CHALLENGE OF CIVIC CLEANLINESS

Paris has been undergoing her annual housecleaning. By Saturday night she should shine like Spotless Town. Not a guilty tin can must escape. Dirt, rubbish and the accumulated riffraff of backyard and alley are doomed to extinction, if every citizen does his duty.

Paris people need little urging to perform this duty. The reputation of being the cleanest city of its size in the country is a distinction jealously guarded by Paris. Indeed, except for the marshalling of forces for a concentrated drive, the Clean-Up and Paint-Up campaign is hardly necessary here. The average home owner in this city is intensely interested in making his property attractive and the acknowledged beauty of the residential districts is a tribute to his unremitting toil and care.

We like to believe that Paris people keep their houses and lawns in order from an inherent love of the beautiful and not merely because they wish to impress the tourist. However, it is a fact that visitors to the city are greatly smitten with its cleanliness and carry away with them lasting thoughts of civic comeliness. Such neatness reflects the personal characteristics of the inhabitants. For this reason our Clean-Up and Paint-Up campaign each year serves the double purpose of satisfying our own aesthetic sensibilities and preparing for the critical scrutiny of the stranger enjoying our hospitality. Paris welcomes the inspection, no matter how searching.

The success of the Clean-Up and Paint-Up campaign, in its entirety, lies in the wholehearted manner in which the community itself adopts its various provisions. The application of paint and varnish here and there, the delving into forgotten corners with spade and hoe, the liberal use of rake and broom certainly produce wonderful results. Slovenliness is to be tolerated no more in civic appearance than in personal dress. The rundown, unkempt, unsightly town must always lag in the march of progress. Pride in one's city is deeply implanted in the human breast and humiliated indeed is the man who has to apologize for the place in which he lives. While the household, however, is busily engaged in the individual and neighborhood assault upon all that is unclean and unsightly, let the city authorities continue the co-operation shown by granting water rent free for thrift gardens. Let them also enforce the ordinance regarding weeds on vacant lots and endeavor to compel absentee owners to mitigate the dandelion nuisance, which often overwhelms a whole block from one uncared-for piece of property.

The Clean-Up and Paint-Up campaign is a challenge to civic pride, a challenge that Paris has never yet evaded.

MRS. STEWART DECLARES ILLITERACY IS DOOMED

"Illiteracy is on the run and the Federal census of 1930 should not record one American as unable to read and write," Mrs. Cora Stewart, of Frankfort, chairman of the illiteracy commission of the National Educational Association, said in an address at the Illiteracy Conference of Southern States, in Birmingham, Ala.

She asserts that the 100,000,000 educated people in the United States "could redeem the 5,000,000 illiterates before Christmas if they would."

"The public school teachers of America are on the war path," she said, "and will never retreat until they have swept the foe—adult illiteracy—from the land."

Railroad brotherhood leaders are poor judges of psychology, or they never would have talked of a strike in times like these.

BASE BALL

Capt. Arthur B. Hancock, Jr., is still of the opinion the Paris Pirates can take the measure of any team of their age in Central Kentucky. The Pirates some time ago defeated the strong North Middletown High School team by the score of 17 to 4, and later took the Paris High School team into camp to the tune of 16 to 5. To-morrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, the Pirates will take on the North Middletown team for a return game, to be played on Hancock field, on the Winchester pike. Both teams are going strong and looking for a place in which to lift scalps. The Pirates are ready to add another victory to their already notable achievements.

GOODMAN GETS ANOTHER VERDICT

In the second trial of the damage suit of F. F. Goodman (Goody) of Paris, against the Louisville & Nashville, which was tried in the Kenton Circuit Court, the jury returned a compromise verdict, awarding Goodman the sum of $2,582.

The case on its first trial in the Kenton Court, resulted in a verdict for Goodman in the sum of $7,500, for damages alleged to have been sustained while in the employ of the L. & N. at Covington. The railroad company applied for a new hearing in the case, which was granted. At the second trial of the case several of the jurors were for returning a verdict for $5,000, but a compromise was finally made on $2,582.

Mr. Goodman is at present a resident of Paris, where he is player-manager of the Paris team in the Blue Gras League, recently organized.

BUSINESS CHANGES

Richard Tate has resigned his position as clerk at Stout's Cafe, and will engage in farming as soon as he can make suitable arrangements.

Mrs. Metta G. O'Neil, formerly of Paris, and Miss Lucy Rice, who have been members of the sales force of Mitchell, Baker & Smith, in Lexington, have bought out the grocery business of W. L. Drummy, at Kentucky and Central avenue, in that city, which they will conduct in the future.

Bryan & Patrick, of North Middletown, have sold their garage business to King Bros., of Winchester, who will conduct the business in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce King will move to North Middletown as soon as suitable quarters can be secured. The garage is one of the most complete in that section of the county, and has all the latest improvements.

FATTY ARBUCKLE ACQUITTED AT THIRD TRIAL

A verdict of acquittal was returned by a jury Wednesday in the third trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle on a manslaughter charge growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress. The jury was out six minutes.

The defendant was deeply affected. He received the verdict with a great sigh of relief. There was no demonstration, the court having warned against it. Mrs. Minta Durfee Arbuckle, the defendant's wife, cried quietly. Both she and Arbuckle shook hands with the jurors.

The quick return of the jury was a surprise. Edward Brown, whose presence on the jury was objected to by the prosecution, was foreman. There was a slight delay when the jury returned due to the absence of the district attorney.
